About Us:

Welcome to CECO Filters

CECO Filters is your number one source for Air Pollution Control Technology.

As a pioneer, leader and Innovator of Fiber Bed Filter Technology, we have been providing cost effective Solutions in a myriad of industries for more than 30 years.

We now offer true global support through three full service and support facilities:

CECO Filters, USA

CECO Filters, China

CECO Filters, India

With a management and staff committed to understanding the specific needs and desires of our clients on each and every project, our customer service is unsurpassed.

Our technical team is driven to explore new technologies while continuously improving existing designs, our solutions are often innovative, but always cost effective.

It is this combination of technical expertise and unequalled dedication to customer service that sets CECO Filters above the rest.
