

Lighted “Smart” Nameplates

These nameplates incorporate up to three light-emitting diodes (LEDs) and output contacts into a standard three-hole footprint. They provide the means to easily monitor and display the status of multiple events and to trigger annunciation or device activation, with or without mechanical targets. They are available in many configurations, and title letters and switch positions can be engraved at the factory.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/25/2015 - 8:03am):

<http://www.chem.info/news/2006/01/lighted-%E2%80%9Csmart%E2%80%9D-nameplates>