

Manual Dumping Station for Pneumatic Conveyors

This manual dumping station for pneumatic conveying systems collects dust created during manual dumping of powder and bulk solid materials from bags, boxes, drums and other containers. The hopper is configured with a non-flow-through pick-up adapter for introducing material into vacuum pneumatic conveyor lines. Hoppers are also available with rotary airlock valves and outlets for connection to a flexible screw conveyor or other conveyors or process equipment.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/27/2015 - 10:12am):

http://www.chem.info/news/2006/02/manual-dumping-station-pneumatic-conveyors?qt-most_popular=0