

Pressure Relief Valve

Published on Chem.Info (<http://www.chem.info>)

Pressure Relief Valve

The 447 series is a spring-loaded pressure relief valve developed to protect highly corrosive processes and installations. Features include: sizes from 1 in. to 4 in., orifice F through P; carbon steel body, all wetted parts are PTFE or PTFE lined (inlet and outlet); PTFE bellows protects bonnet area; ASME Sec. VIII - National Board certified capacities.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/29/2015 - 3:26pm):

<http://www.chem.info/news/2006/02/pressure-relief-valve>