

Solvent Containment Systems

Vaplock Closed Systems for solvent containment minimizes leaks, spills and vapor escape from solvent waste and supply containers. A comprehensive line of bottle caps and check valves provide an effective means of sealed solvent delivery, while safety containers with manifolds and carbon filters collect solvent wastes with minimal vapor release. The product line is designed for ease of use and adaptability, and will conform to a broad array of standard laboratory solvent containers.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/30/2015 - 7:48pm):

http://www.chem.info/news/2006/05/solvent-containment-systems?qt-recent_content=0