

Magnetic Drive Pumps

The DB Series line of premium magnetic drive pumps operates at up to 70% efficiency with broad hydraulic coverage. Impeller diameters are evenly spaced for more precise coverage. The pumps offer higher working pressure capabilities, which allow high specific gravity fluids (1.8+ SG) to be pumped safely. Units are molded from durable, corrosion resistant GF Polypropylene or CF PVDF.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/25/2015 - 9:55pm):

<http://www.chem.info/news/2006/07/magnetic-drive-pumps>