

Containment Enclosures

Containment enclosures are designed to control the weighing and safe dispensing or sampling of powders to meet COSSH and GPM requirements. These floor mounted enclosures feature HEPA filtered supply air and HEPA filtered exhaust air to ensure a clean contamination free work zone for product protection and eliminate powders from discharging to the surrounding area. Units are constructed of modular wall and ceiling panels for easy assembly.

Source URL (retrieved on 07/31/2014 - 5:19pm):

http://www.chem.info/news/2006/08/containment-enclosures?qt-most_popular=1