

Submerged Membrane Modules

PURON submerged membrane modules remove solids and meet stringent effluent requirements, while utilizing less space than conventional alternatives. The aeration system ensures optimal solids management, high flow rate and reliable operation, while using up to 50 percent less energy. Membrane bioreactors with submerged membrane modules are ideal for sewage treatment for municipalities, and treatment of wastewater for malt beverage, textile, food, paper and chemicals industries.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/29/2015 - 12:12am):

<http://www.chem.info/news/2006/09/submerged-membrane-modules>