

Inverting Filter Centrifuge

The HF model centrifuge incorporates an inverting filter, thin cake processing technology, and direct contact drying of the material for separation/filtration to provide processing advantages. With these combinations of technologies, it is possible to select the exact final moisture content of the finished product. Other advantages include no residual heel remains on the filter cloth, and full flexible process recipe management.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/28/2015 - 9:14am):

http://www.chem.info/news/2006/10/inverting-filter-centrifuge?qt-recent_content=0