

Wastewater Treatment

The Annihilator grinders are twin shaft solids reduction units designed to ensure that harsh solids in the primary sludge stream are ground uniformly and efficiently. The grinders protect downstream equipment from being plugged or damaged from large solids, reducing expensive repairs. The unit offers optimized cutter combinations, one-piece flange housing and a quick change cutter cartridge.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 1:19pm):

<http://www.chem.info/news/2006/10/wastewater-treatment>