

Our Sustainable Future: Small generator, big applications

Submitted by Guest (not verified) on Mon, 12/21/2009 - 1:26pm

Today's topic is research on creating a sustainable future. This discovery could render today's landfill-bound batteries obsolete. Imagine if all you had to do to charge your iPod or your BlackBerry was to wave your hand, or stretch your arm, or take a walk? Intro theme and music by Kevin MacLeod. Creative Commons licensed audio from freesound.iaa.upf.edu includes sounds by crk365, man, rutgermuller, Halleck and Ijudman.
